

SELECT PPE SUPPORTING THE YOUNG LEADERS OF TOMORROW:

Bursary Winners 2017

We as Select PPE team have not only excelled in the service industry during 2016, but also broadened our horizons by taking recognition to our young leaders of tomorrow and giving back to the community. Applications were advertised and We have in this regard taken it upon ourselves to search for not only young leaders but extremely talented, innovative, motivated, and hardworking South Africans to show case their extreme intelligence and dedication in their academic studies.

As Select PPE team we are delighted and excited to announce that from the 30 applications received, we have awarded 9 lucky students with bursaries for 2017. Recipients were invited to the Select PPE (Pty) Ltd Head office for a small interview and photo session. However, giving the dedication of the students not all were able to attend due to prior commitments. For those recipients which were able to attend it included four (4) currently enrolled students in the University of Northwest, Potchefstroom Campus and one student currently matriculating in the Rustenburg region. These students not only show massive potential of becoming brilliant Chartered Accountants/ Entrepreneurs/ Business tycoons but have proven that they are deserving of the award through their desire and dedication to learn more and utilizing their potential.

We are pleased to announce that External Bursary recipients for 2017 are:

Evan Shahid Snyman (University of Northwest)

Evan Shahid Snyman is currently studying towards his Bachelor of commerce in Chartered Accounting degree.

Lenkwe Andrew Nchabeleng (University of North West)

Lenkwe Andrew Nchabeleng is currently studying towards his Bachelor of Commerce in Chartered Accounting degree at the University of North West

Juanita Swart (University of North West)

Juanita Swart is currently studying towards her Bachelor of Commerce in Chartered Accounting degree.

Roman Wesley Taylor (University of North West)

Roman Wesley Taylor is currently Studying towards his Bachelor of Commerce in Financial Accounting degree.

Tebogo Tsholofelo Mokgotwa (Rustenburg Educational College)

Tebogo Tsholofelo Mokgotwa will be completing her Bachelor of Commerce in Chartered Accounting degree

These brilliant, hardworking students believe that the road to becoming successful is not easy but with persistence, hard work, dedication and the right support from family and Select PPE, they are certain to persevere and reach the high goals and aspirations that they have set for themselves